

"The Boob-attitudes" (based on the "Beatitudes")

Blessed are those with breasts intact for they shall enjoy bobbing in the waves.

Blessed are those who have gone flat--
no need for bras or x-rays.

Blessed are the one-breasted Amazons who bear their bodies with no shame.

And also those who wear their courage boldly
with reconstruction.

Blessed be the prosthetic makers and fitters
and the amazing "knocker" knitters.

Blessed is the breast cancer warrior and her scar--
and those who choose tattoos and art.

Blessed are our beloved surgeons, docs, nurses, healers and witches.

Blessed are the humble and mild among us-- and blessed also are the Badass Bitches!

IDC, Lobular, Triple Negative, In Situ, Inflammatory or Metastatic...

Chemo, Radiation, Surgery, Lymphedema, Medication...

Blessed are you for having gone through any or all--
and for your healing and spiritual elevation.

Blessed be for Boobies past, present, and future!!
